DE PROFUNDIS - the unofficial newsletter of LASFS

COLOPHON

De Profundis 439– September 2009. Publisher and Editor: Marty Cantor.

De Profundis is the unofficial newsletter of the Los Angeles Science Fantasy Society (11513 Burbank Blvd., North Hollywood, CA 91601, USA). The LASFS' telephone number is: (818) 760-9234. The club's web site is: www.lasfsinc.info. De Profundis is available only from Marty Cantor for his cost of producing the zines: 55¢ in person, $1.00 by domestic mail. Out of country rates quoted upon request but it is recommended that copies be downloaded - or at least read - from the DE PROF web site.

Westercon is a service mark of the Los Angeles Science Fantasy Society, Incorporated (LASFS, Inc.). Worldcon and NASFIC are service marks of the World Science Fiction Society (WSFS).

I want any news of interest to LASFS members (no poetry or fiction). Send items to the LASFS address c/o De Profundis or leave them in the De Profundis mailbox at the clubhouse. The editor, Marty Cantor, can be reached at his edress: martyhoohah \(at\) sbcglobal \(dot\) net or at the clubhouse on Thursday evenings. Deadlines are a bit fluid, but mid-month Thursdays are probably it.

If anybody who receives DE PROF via the mail happens to move without letting me know the new address; well, I have more important things to do than to be chasing down addresses so I will stop sending zines to you even if you have given me money to do so.

I will accept no advertising in De Profundis but I will always try to find room to announce upcoming events of interest to LASFS members.

Even though De Profundis is no longer the official newsletter of the LASFS, I intend to run the zine as if it still belonged to the club. Mostly. Due to space limitations, priority is always given to content mandated in the LASFS by-laws and by any applicable traditions. Also, after that stuff, by what the editor wants to do.

Written in Publisher 2000 on a new custom-built Intel dual-core computer (using the XP Pro operating system) and printed on an HP 4700dn colour laser printer.

Statements herein are those of the speaker/writer and do not necessarily reflect the opinions of the club. Interjections in italics are solely the responsibility of the smartass, er, editor. Any resemblances 'twixt smartassery and responsibility are purely coincidental.

Addendum: At the LASFS' Board of Directors meeting of February 8, 2009, the Directors accepted the proposal by Marty Cantor to take over De Profundis as his own fanzine, or as one of them, and he will be assuming the entire cost of production. Marty Cantor has promised to use his 5+ years experience of running De Prof as a guide to pubbing the zine as the unofficial newsletter of the society. The proposal was put to the Board because the Board had previously indicated that costs were dictating the discontinuance of the zine. As of this issue, De Prof will be available on paper solely at cost: currently 55¢. Mailed copies, domestically, will be $1.00. Subscriptions will be accepted; however, as prices are set at cost of production, there will be no discounts for long-term subs.

Thanks go to Elayne Pelz, Cathy Beckstead, Charlie Jackson, Lee and Barry Gold, and any others who are helping me in providing news to LASFS members.*

(complete minutes are supposed to be filed in the LASFS' files and can be read there - also at www.lasfsinc.info)

Meeting #3747, June 4, 2009 Mary Ann Canfield, Mike Thorsen, presiding Karl Lembke, Scribe

Mary Ann Canfield, Presiding until Mike Thorsen arrived.

"Seize Power? I prefer See's Candy."

Meeting 3747 was opened at 20:11:07

Special Orders of Business: We had some announced. David Eddings, author of the Belgariad series, passed at 77.

Joan Steward's niece has a new liver, and will soon be learning the words to "Fifty Ways to Love Your Liver".

The Menace were read and approved as "Run away screaming!".

Patron Saint: Jim Glass. Marty Cantor recalls him from 1975. We were in a tinier building on Ventura Blvd, with a tiny library. Jim Glass was the librarian. He was one of our better librarians, and worked on a handicap. Stuff was stored in people's houses when it overflowed the library, and he kept track of it all.

And he gave us money. He is said to have passed on about five years ago. He was given three cheers, and a stone for not throwing.

The Registrar rose to announce guests. These are Peter Santell, of CFO, and Michael Martin.

Old Business: Nominations for President were held. Nominees are:

Christian McGuire
Matthew Tepper
Joe Zeff

Karen Anderson rose to give us a Moment of Science. First, a brief plug for her APA-L zine, Trobairitz. Next, a couple who plan to make their vows in zero gee. The cost of the ride is $5600/person, and they're paying their own freight and for several friends. (Well, that is an interesting use of the Vomit Comet. - ed.)

The treasurer's report was presented. We have money. We can't spend it.

Miscellaneous: Mike Thorsen: five years ago, he twisted the bottom panels of his car out of shape on a parking bumper. Last Wednesday, he learned why you shouldn't do that. He was driving down the freeway at 65-ish, and something banged off his oil filter and dislodged it. Five minutes later, he had no car.

Karl announced his book is now listed on Amazon. If you search on Amazon for "Spice Cadets", it'll come up. And, since the Scribe puts hyperlinks to Amazon in the Menace, you'll find a link there very soon.

Having called it to order, Mary Ann moved to adjourn.

We adjourned at 21:02:21.

Meeting #3748, June 11, 2009
Rob Powell, Presiding
Karl Lembke, Scribe

"He's got a hammer, and he's not afraid to use it!"

Meeting 3748 was opened at 20:19:54.

Special Orders of Business: Nothing that has reached the Emperor at this time.

The Menace were read and approved as "A shameless plug".

Patron Saint: Hare Hobbs. Scratch: HE wears green! Matthew: He loves to buy recordings of music and share his interest with others. (Even if they do not want him to do any sharing. - ed) George Mulligan: Roommate at 84 Worldcon, and we got along quite well.

Martin: One particular delight is never knowing what Hare will have, but it will be something weird, wonderful, out there, and brilliant. Enjoys listening to him about music. Zeff: Probably one of the most severely dyslexic people he's ever seen and he reads more books than many people without disabilities because he doesn't let it stop him.

CLJII: He is featured in the comics. Darnell Coleman enjoys the Christian discussion with him. Jerry Pournelle: Hare has a very charming sister and is probably the best read dyslexic he'll ever meet. (Tepper: He's more of a green dyslexic)

Frank Waller: It's not easy being green. Hare was given three Cheers and a CD of the Beach Boys performing Carmen.

Patron Saint: Sandy Cohen, the Sacred Chancellor of Chocolate. Scratch: Some people may say he's the chancellor of chocolate, but I think of him as a prince. Tom Safer: Sandy welcomed him into the Sacred Object club last year. Joe Zeff: Sandy is, in fact, a sacred object.

Christian McGuire: Sandy Cohen is one of the exemplars of the club. He's stubborn, he has an odd sense of humor, he's loud, he has strange interests that many of us share, he eats too much, he wears glasses, he's balding, and he has the generosity and acceptance that most of the club members have. Jerry Pournelle: He finally got rid of those crazy hats!

Christian: He's worked Worldcons, Westercons, Loscons, more Worldcons, and Nasfics. Kris Bauer: And he plays a mean game of maj. Michelle Pincus: He's one of the better hell players.

Scratch: he's vicious at cards. (But I beat him at Gin Rummy ... in the early 1980s.— ed.) Matthew Tepper: he's lived in LA and Minneapolis, both with large groups of fans. Sandy Cohen was given three cheers, a big Hershey's kiss. (Not from me.)

The Registrar rose to announce guests. There were some. Two people who had to leave, Molly and Kevin Rottner, encouraged to come in by Tadao. Dana Ginsberg, encouraged to visit by Chaz. Robert Cannon, who found out about us from Wikipedia. And returning, Sydney Mills. And her BFF Senna Chen

While waiting, Michelle Pincus announced Karen Anderson's Moment of Science. Mr. Webster's fourth grade class has completed a unit on explorers, and wrote a song in honor of the Mars Rovers. The song was played over the club's audio system.

Old Business: Christian McGuire was elected President in a very dusty avalanche.

We actually had three candidates for Vice President.

Elayne Pelz was railroaded into the job of Treasurer, and a Big Leather Bag!!!

Michelle Pincus was railroaded in as Registrar.

And Karl Lembke was re-elected Scribe in a hotly contested election.

At this point, we switch to Agenda Light.

Committee Reports: George Mulligan announced this was his 25th anniversary.

Miscellaneous: Mike Thorsen pointed out this election night, we actually managed to keep most of the guests until after the election.

We adjourned at 21:51:30.

Meeting #3749, June 18, 2009
Rob Powell, Presiding
Karl Lembke, Scribe

“We don't have to listen to you for ten more minutes.” – Hare Hobbs.

Meeting 3749 was opened at 20:09:24

Special Orders of Business: Nothing that's come to Charlie's attention.

The Menace were read and approved as “Blight of the Fumblebee”.

Patron Saint: Ted Johnstone. Milt Stevens notes his real name was Dave McDaniel. He lived under the pseudonym and wrote under his real name. He got Ted Johnstone because when he and some friends were coming to their first LASFS meeting in the 50s, they didn't think they wanted us knowing their real names. Steve Tolliver = Dave Langley. Karen Anderson said Ted was a major filker of the period. They created a filk operetta, My Fair Femmefan. It's about one of the British World-cons. (I could have filked all night...) His name is all over the Pelz filk collection. (Making it a bit difficult to read, I opine ... ed.) CLJII: He was not a good writer. He wrote good stories, but getting them written was like pulling teeth from Phil Castora. He was a wonderful cinematographer and film editor. CLJII met him on account of the Man from Uncle novels, and they became very good friends. Since he's a cartoon character, he's never really died. Cartoon characters don't die, they go to limbo. (I have never watched any cartoon characters dance the limbo. - ed.)

Jerry Pournelle: Dave Mc Daniel was as good a storyteller as any of us. But he didn't like to write. “I don't think I ever met a man who more hated to write.” He may have been the best argument for outlawing marijuana. I made the hideous mistake of paying Dave when the story was about half done, and didn't have any more money to offer him. I'd come over with a six pack of beer which I wouldn't give him, and baby-sit him while he wrote the damn story. When Jerry was given the opportunity to go to San Onofre, Dave loaned Jerry his camera.

Zeff: Not lucky enough to meet him, but has heard a story. At one point, he was in a motorcycle accident. Came in later, after he'd received the settlement, and dropped enough cash on the Treasurer's desk to make Patron Saint in one lump sum. Tepper: As a result of the accident, he was laid up at UCLA medical center in traction. Despite his position, when friends would visit and ask him how he was feeling, he'd reply, “Can't kick”. Tom Safer: When did we lose him? CLJII: Halloween week of 1978.

Pournelle: We first met in 1962 at Chicon, he introduced himself to me as a hobbit. Milt: He was secretary when I joined in 1960. Pournelle: He would have been one of the top names in the field if he'd just gotten over his aversion to writing. If we'd had computers back then, he might have written more.

CLJII: In his last year, a member persuaded Dave to work on a Star Trek collaboration. Then it turned out the other member didn't have any connections at all. Jerry thinks the lack of output was largely due to marijuana.

Scratch liked him. So did Jerry, and Karen. Bruce Pelz stopped singing when Dave died, because Dave (aka Tedron) did the playing. David McDaniel/Ted Johnstone got three rousing cheers, a nice new Walther with a D on the handle.

Registrar: The Registrar announced we have guests tonight: David J. Williams, author and tonight's speaker; Steven Klatz, heard about us through Dave; and, Mark Bergstrom, heard about us from a guy in a bar.

Committee Reports: The Committee to Gouge rose to do precisely that.

And then we went to Agenda Light.

Committee Reports: Christian and Arlene: On 10/23, we'll be celebrating LASFS anniversary at Castaways. An installment plan is available. And you don't have to wait until the due date to pay.

We adjourned at 20:48:28.

Meeting #3750, June 25, 2009
Mike Thorsen, Presiding
Karl Lembke, Scribe

Meeting 3750 was opened at 20:09:26.

AND THERE WAS MUCH REJOICING.

Special Orders of Business:

We have one: We note the passing of H.B. Gilmore, a writer of various fantasy books.

In his honor, we held a moment of silence, except for the vending machine.

The Menace were read and approved as "We don't have to listen to you for another ten minutes".

Patron Saint: Alan Frisbie, The Sacred Flying

Disc. Joe Zeff: A number of years ago, when the President was some fugghead named Ed Green, early in the meeting, Ed yelled at Frisbie and told him to get out and take his noise with him. Later, Ed had to call him back in for his Three Cheers.

CLJII: He was a bit of a genius in several specialized areas. He had a business card which listed his name and job title, "Thaumaturgist". He is alive and well, and has a life, so we don't see him that often. He'll have an annual party, and will have an assortment of sodas that no one has ever seen before. (Or since. - ed.) Larry Niven: Halloween nights, he's a wonderful costumer, based on whatever theme Marilyn and he come up with.

Mike Thorsen: Summer Holiday Party at Pacific Palisades Park: Half the club was helping Kris Bauer move, and someone showed up with an air-foil toy he had just developed. No, it was not Alan Frisbie. In that case, I have nothing to contribute. Alan Frisbie was given three cheers, and a dial tone.

Committee Reports: Arlene Satin and Christian McGuire reminded all of the 75th Anniversary banquet. We're also having an event here, on the 27th of October, the actual anniversary, where we'll have a meeting, cake, and surprises.

Marcia Minsky reminds one and all that November 27-29 will be Loscon 36. Memberships are $40 now. They're $50 at the door.

The Registrar announced we have a guest, Rayne Burk, who came in with Eris and Martin Young.

The Committee to Gouge managed to do so.

Time Bound Announcements: Cathy Beckstead announced Sweeny Todd playing at the Camarillo Community Theater. No, they don't have meat pies at the snack bar. Yet.

Karen Anderson had a triple-play Moment Of Science. Edith Rhona, after whom the Rhona Ice Shelf was named, has died. She was one of the first two women to over-winter in Antarctica.

Dr. Jerri (Nielsen) Fitzgerald died of the cancer she diagnosed while at the South Pole.

According to reports, Cassini has spotted traces of salts in the tiger stripe rifts in Enceladus. These cracks are 100 degrees warmer than the surrounding surface.

Jerry Pournelle had a comment on Dr. Jerri's story. She didn't discover the lump until it was impossible to fly in or out, and was stuck there for 4 ½ months. She had to train a tech to do the biopsy, send the scan back to Harvard, and I could not find the rest of this paragraph, anywhere. - ed.)

We adjourned at 20:56:56.

Starting with the May 2009 meeting, the BoD minutes in De Prof will be the uncorrected ones taken by the editor of this zine

Board of Directors meeting, July 12, 2009

30 Second Reports
(Board Members)

Chairman (Karl Lembke): No Report.

Vice Chairman (Bob Null): The Gestetner has been repaired by Charlie and there is now limited access to the drums as they are in lockable cabinets. Also, Charlie is cleaning out the corner cabinet. The computers are working fine.

Secretary (Darnell Coleman): The minutes are now recorded.

Comptroller (Christian McGuire): No report.

Library (Elayne Pelz): Nothing new.

Quartermaster/Supplies (Mike Thorsen): (Not present at time report was to be delivered.)

Publications (Milt Stevens): De Prof working okay, and Barry reports web site okay.

Events (Marcia Minsky): The 75th Anniversary preparations are okay. Arlene reported on photo shoot after board meeting today. Also, there will be a final photo shoot for our 75th Anniversary Memory Album on August 9 (after the Board meeting on that day).

Fundraising and Recruitment (Arlene Satin): Needs more art for Zazzle.com and help on colour and photo-shop work for the art on hand. The account is set up.

(Significant Others)

Marketing Committee (Arlene Satin): Harry Potter movie (where we have a table) moved to another date, Saturday, August 1. Web site is attracting people who are asking us to do things.

Club President (Christian McGuire): Club is still an annoying place but the members still show up.

Agenda Items

Grant findings (Milt Stevens): Lots more people writing books about getting grants than there are people offering grants. Found a few places which offer grants. Challenge Grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities seemed to be the one which fit us the best – but still not so good. Milt talked to a person, here. “Atmosphere” for grants is currently not good. Milt was thanked for his work on this.

(Whilst awaiting arrival of Christian McGuire, there was a discussion of a banner for the Marketing Committee for their displays at events.)

Loscon 36: Joyce Sperling said she had complaints from 3 artists about how things were being done. Christian said this topic is not germane for the board. Karl said that the problem was being addressed by the Loscon committee so there was nothing to be discussed.

Open Forum

There was no quartermaster but there were drinks in the machine.

Arlene said that we appear to be ending the meeting soon so people should go out to eat and then come back for the photo shoot.

Adjournment: 11:50.

LETTER OF COMMENT

Gloria McMillan

glomc (at) dakotacom (dot) net

Dear Marty,

Our family--Bob, and Chris, and Gloria McMillan--visited LASFS on Jan. 8th, 2009. My husband Bob is an astronomer specializing in asteroid detection at Kitt Peak here in Tucson, Arizona, and we were out in the LA area for one of his JPL conferences. In general, we are often bemused by how little attention is given to science at science fiction gatherings. But Karen Anderson surprised us! She does a great job of keeping science on the mental horizon for LASFS. It took me awhile to get these thoughts into an email, but do tell Karen to keep up her good work. I had wished to talk to her after that meeting but did not get the opportunity to do so. Maybe another time.

All the best to your gang from slightly warmish Tucson.

Thanks for your e-mailed letter of comment, Gloria. I encourage any of my readers who feel so inclined to send me letters commenting on the contents, positive or negative, of this zine. I will endeavor to make room for them in De Prof. Assuming, of course, that I do not get squashed by an asteroid ... - ed.
